

GETTING TO THE ACADEMY

By train:

The Academy campus is within walking distance of the several train lines (Parliament Station on the City Loop, and Collingwood Station on the Hurstbridge and South Morang lines)

By tram:

The campus is directly serviced by the 86 tram and within walking distance of six other tram routes.

By bus:

The campus is near bus stops on Johnston and Hoddle streets, which support over 25 routes including services to Footscray, Elsternwick, Moonee Ponds, Northland, Templestowe, Heidelberg, Doncaster, Ringwood, Box Hill and Eildon.

By bicycle:

There are numerous bike-friendly roads into and around Collingwood, many with dedicated bike lanes, including Wellington St and Gipps St.

By car:

There is limited free parking in the streets around the Academy, including some 4-hour parks, plus metered parking.
